Want to train overseas?

The Queensland Overseas Foundation scholarships can help you get there and realise your dreams of working internationally.

Four scholarships valued at up to $7000 each are on offer.

Apply now if you:

- want to work in your career for up to two years overseas
- have completed an apprenticeship, traineeship or vocational certificate IV or diploma in the past four years
- have gained relevant work experience
- are a Queensland resident
- are prepared to take up the scholarship within 12 months of it being awarded.

To find out more or to download an application form, visit:

www.qof.org.au

or contact the Foundation on tel (07) 3345 6405.

Applications close 31st October 2009.
